SCHOOL-RELATED ANXIETY: VOICES FOR CHANGE

This roundtable conversation will focus on three key areas:

- The impact of school-related anxiety on students.
- How the education sector and other partners can address school-related anxiety.
- How anxiety connects to broader conversations on youth mental health.

Panelists include:

Jenn Chan – Teacher

Jenn de Lugt – University of Regina

Kayleigh Olson – Student

Lori Meyer – Prairie South School Division

Jenn Angus-Morine – YMCA, Moose Jaw

Tish Karpa – Saskatchewan Teachers' Federation

About the Salon Series

The Salon Series is designed to provide research teams with the opportunity to partner with other local stakeholders to both share their research findings and to explore the next steps or implementation strategies.
